

Dear Friends,

“A trip is what you take when you can’t take anymore of what you’ve been taking.” (Adeline Ainsworth) This might be what you are feeling just before you go on vacation. What is it that you have been taking? Lots of work, exams at school, stress of everyday life? Vacation time sure is a blessing to pack up and go on a trip.

The vacation that we take will eventually end and we have to return home. It’s a real blessing when we like what we return to. But even then we might run dry at times. It’s good to have a powerful source where we can reboot: But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint. (Isaiah 40:31)

Hoping in the Lord is expecting that His promise of strength will help us to rise above life’s distractions and difficulties. The Word of God wants you to know and believe that God loves you and wants the best for you. You can relax in God’s mighty hands, confident that His purposes are right. You can rest assured that He has the power to control all of life—and your life as well. Though your faith may be struggling or weak, please accept his provisions and care for you.

Even the strongest people get tired at times, but God’s power and strength never diminish. He is never too tired or too busy to help and listen. His strength is our source of strength. When you feel all of life crushing you and cannot go another step, remember that you can call upon God to renew your strength.

Entrust your days and burdens
To God’s most loving hand;
He cares for you while ruling
The sky, the sea, the land.

He that in clouds and tempest
Finds break-through for the sun
Will find right pathways for you
Till trav’ling days are done.

Hymn #427, from Paul Gerhardt

Have a good summer, safe travels, inspiring experiences and deepened relationships with one another and with the Lord,

yours

ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Once a month we invite you to get together to discuss a Bible passage together. Just grab a cup of coffee or tea and join in! It's a good place to ask questions you might have. On Sundays, 2:30-4:00 p.m. (just before our church service). The children enjoy instruction and fun at the same time during their Kids' Club. Ask pastor for the location. (pastor@alcb.be)

Walking with the Lord

There is power in praying — God's Word invites us to pray. It's part of walking with the Lord: Talking to Him as we go. Jesus is always with us and He is ready to listen and to act. So, let us pray more often, more happily, and more passionately.

Here is a prayer that you may use, a prayer for your spouse.

Lord God, I pray that you would establish in me and (spouse's name) bonds of love that cannot be broken. Show me how to love my wife/husband in an ever-deepening way that she/he can clearly recognize. May we have mutual respect and admiration for each other so that we become and remain one another's greatest friend, champion, and unwavering support. Where love has been diminished, lost, destroyed, or buried under hurt and disappointment, put it back in our hearts. Give us strength to hold on to the good in our marriage, even in those times when one of us doesn't feel love. In Jesus' name. Amen.
