

Dear Friends,

Today in the West, not many people consider the religious meaning of Christmas. Most people will not go to church, even at Christmas. It has become a busy race to spend money on presents, and get ready for the day. A visitor from another world might think that Christmas was a festival to the gods of money and shopping.

What do you want from Christmas? Many people do hope for more than presents at Christmas. We want to somehow return to a time in our childhood (or some other good time in the past), when life was simpler and made more sense, before the troubles of adult life arrived. We feel certain that behind all the fun and decorations, there must somehow be a message, something more, some key to life, hope and happiness.

Can we look beyond the way Christmas is celebrated today, and find any real meaning, any message for our lives today? Yes, we can, when we go back to the origin, to the child whose birth we celebrate. Jesus said about Himself: The Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many (Mark 10:45). We were stuck in our own harmful ways and needed to be saved. Jesus is the bail-out plan of God. He is the key to forgiveness and fellowship with God – and so to Christmas as well. We are celebrating God's gift to us, the greatest servant, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He came to serve you. He was born to save you. Because He loves you. Does the true meaning of Christmas change how you see this holiday? How you see God? How you see yourself? Can we revel in Christmas besides presents and the atmosphere? With Christ, our servant in the center, we can!

Merry Christ-mas to all of you.

ADULT BIBLE STUDY

Once a month we invite you to get together to discuss a Bible passage together. Just grab a cup of coffee or tea and join in! It's a good place to ask questions you might have. On Sundays, 2:30-4:00 p.m. (just before our church service). The children enjoy instruction and fun at the same time during their Kids' Club.

Ask pastor for the location. (pastor@alcb.be)

Walking with the Lord

Children and the Offering – Parents are the first teachers of our children and that is true for our spiritual life as well. It's from us that children get to know and love the Lord. They should see us pray, worship, interact with Christians and non-Christians, set biblical priorities, and also give our offerings at church. Here are ideas for you to help your children to become cheerful givers:

- Let your children drop in your offering for the family or for themselves
- Set a part of their pocket money aside and have them bring it to church
- Talk about it and explain why, and for what we give from our income to God
- Pray for pastors and missionaries and for willing hearts to support them
- Be a good role model to them as you walk with the Lord

If you haven't yet put in your contribution into the church funds this year, you can still easily catch up in these days. We continue to rely on donations for our church and mission in the city. Please transfer your contributions or donations to the account of our congregation.

Please don't forget to give from your 13th month pay.

Meeting the Family

I've been at ALCB for a year and a half. We were very excited to find an English speaking Lutheran service because the countries we were stationed in the past this was never an option.

Once upon a time when I was 15-16 my sister and I were part of a Reformed (Calvinist) chorus in our little town where we grew up.

I find a lot of joy in cooking, gardening and handcrafting jewelry. I also enjoy spending time with my family out in parks and biking with the kids.

Judit

If my life was a book, the title would be "The life of plants". I am rather a plant person and believe that those living creatures also communicate, but we need to be more open to understand them.

I came to ALCB because of my husband. I did not grow up in a religious family with learning about church. I was baptized as an adult in a small Lutheran church in Budapest. The pastor who baptized me also married Marc and I. Every time we visit Budapest we stop there for a Sunday service.

One thing I love about ALCB that there is communion every Sunday.
